Remembrance Space

These 26 soldiers and seamen of the Parish all lost their lives during the years of the conflict or shortly afterwards due to the appalling conditions they endured, the privations and diseases they suffered or the wounds they sustained. In many cases those who served were simply mentally and physically exhausted by what they had seen and been through.

Each tree at the Reymerston Remembrance Space has a detailed plaque dedicated to one of the fallen. There is also a free booklet, copies of which are available in the holders in this shelter or downloadable from our website at; <https://garvestonepc.wixsite.com/garvestonepc/walk-of-peace>.

We do invite you to make a contribution to the Royal British Legion or Help for Heroes if you pick-up or download the booklet.

The Walk Of Peace

The maps of a walk around the Parish, taking in all three churches involved with this project can be found on the following page. The route is just 3.23 miles for the shorter walk and 4.21 miles for the loop walk. We invite walkers to consider as you go that you do so in peace, enjoying the beauty of the Norfolk countryside and villages.

More than 100 years ago the guns fell silent because of what brave men and women did. As you walk the fields of Garvestone, Thuxton and Reymerston your thoughts will help to remember and honour the debt of gratitude we owe them.
